

Questions for Prayer and Reflection

"I have come to light a fire on the earth. How I wish the blaze were ignited!"
-- Luke 12:49

"If you are what you should be, you will set the whole world ablaze!"
-- Pope John Paul II

Our mission: "Bringing to light the truth of the teachings of the Catholic Church and igniting in our hearts a love for our Faith."

1. Do I believe that if people begin to realize the great gift they have in their Catholic Faith, amazing things will happen? They will pray and study and become convicted in their beliefs. They will change their lives to live according to the truth. They will take advantage of the sacraments and all the Catholic Church has to offer the soul and they will become holy. They will be on fire for God and zealous witnesses of the Faith to all they meet. They will set the world ablaze! Do I realize that this conference is a great gift from God to enlighten and ignite people to change the world? What fruits have I seen come from this conference?
2. Do I realize that this conference is an incredible tool for evangelization? Do I realize that the most significant way I can help with this conference is by spreading the word? Am I making the effort to personally invite people, one soul at a time? What friends or family members should I invite? What sacrifices could I make in order to get them to come? Could I witness the conference to any groups that I am in? Do I know any Catholic leaders that I could inform about the conference who could, in turn, tell others?
3. Do I believe in the power of prayer and that with God, all things are possible? How can I make praying for the conference part of my daily routine?
4. What is God calling me to offer this year to help? Can I contribute financially to support the efforts of this conference? Can I offer my time to help with preparation before the conference? Can I assist on the day of the conference and miss seeing the talks myself?
